

IBHRE Non-Discrimination Policy

The International Board of Heart Rhythm Examiners (IBHRE) does not condone discrimination with regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation and/or identification, age, disability, or veteran status in employment nor in the certification programs that it operates. The International Board of Heart Rhythm Examiners seeks to make all programs and services, including electronic and information technology, accessible to people with disabilities. In this spirit, and in accordance with the provisions of Sections 504 and 508 of the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Board provides medical professionals with reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to programs and activities of the Board.
