

What's Holding You Back?

DON'T LET ANOTHER YEAR FLY BY!
GET CERTIFIED TODAY.

You have put in time and commitment towards your area of expertise to save lives, so why shy away from the exam? It's time to ensure your hard work is validated and acknowledged within the heart rhythm community. By taking the IBHRE exam, you verify to colleagues, patients, and most importantly, to yourself, that you have mastered the standard of competency in heart rhythm management.

“The motivation to increase knowledge about cardiac devices, the personal career achievement, and professional recognition were the rewards I felt after successfully completing the certification.”

-Cheryl Ceretto, MS, CCDS
